The Mission Statement of Ascension Lutheran Church.

The Radical Hospitality of Jesus – “Come and See”

35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. 36 When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!” 37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. 38 Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, “What do you want?” They said, “Rabbi” (which means “Teacher”), “where are you staying?” 39 “Come,” he replied, “and you will see.”

Imagine this scenario- you have been very busy. Several visitors have just left your home leaving you with lots of clearing and cleanup to do. There is hardly anything in the fridge or the cupboards, and you are tired. You decide that today you are going to rest. Tomorrow you will go shopping and do the housework - not today. So you make yourself comfortable and settle down to watch the Packer game.

An hour later you are the doorbell rings. You – to say the least, are disturbed. You open the door to find yourself met by huge smiles. Dear friends have dropped in for a surprise visit; they have brought their teenage children with them. How do you respond? How do you feel? How are you going to offer them the hospitality they are seeking? Are you able to say come in, take me as I am? I guess it may depend on the type of person you are, but I suspect that none of us would turn them away. The challenge they are presenting us with is not one of inconvenience but rather one of hospitality and how we might offer it...

I was recently reminded of an encounter I had many years ago at my first church. Like Ascension, the church hosted Alcoholic Anonymous meetings. On that night I had attended and, with the meeting over went into the parking lot where I noticed a man standing alone near a rusty car. I introduced myself. As we talked he learned I was the pastor there as well. He sighed and told me how long he had intended to “get back to church.” I invited him to worship. With that he began to tell me the story of his life. It was a familiar string of regrets and loss that accompany addiction. We shared a bit more with each other and said, “Good night.” As I was walking to my car, he called out to me. “Did you mean what you said?” “About what?” I asked, “Did you mean that I could come to this church?” You know, only in the last couple of years has it dawned on me that he had told me his life’s story as a response to my invitation. From the experience of many other encounters since then I have come to believe that the telling of his story was a polite way of explaining why he couldn’t take me up on my offer. He felt he wasn’t “clean enough” to be included in our congregation. I never saw him again. I wish my response to his questions had been more direct. I wish I had simply repeated the words of Christ. I wish I had said, “Come and see.” “Come in, take me as I am.” If we might struggle to extend such a welcome to our friends or family who drop by for a surprise visit, how might we welcome people into the church? Can we respond with Jesus words to those who followed him... “Come and see?”

Jesus’ call to follow him, to “come and see” turned out to be a characteristic of his ministry as he welcomed prostitutes and tax collectors, touched lepers and even dead bodies - the kindness of Jesus was controversial. He demonstrated disdain towards the secular and religious limits of social propriety for his hospitality knew no limit. It was not just indiscriminate: it was wide open kindness. He received Pharisees and sinners alike.

His welcome was gracious. He shared words and relationship - he had nothing else to give as fancy meals were provided by others, and yet somehow Jesus was the host bringing the love of God to the conversation - surrounding his hearers in grace, giving and receiving at the same time.

Come and see.... Jesus invitation is central to life in Him. Through his generous, almost promiscuous hospitality, Jesus reenacts the gracious presence of the Triune God. We live not in a world of divisions ruled over by a supreme being, but in a universe tightly bound and called into being by the God who desires intimacy with us. Divine hospitality lies at the heart of creation. It is also the source of our redemption. For we are invited to join the eternal dance - a dance that knows no limits as more and more people are welcomed to join, to catch the heartbeat rhythm of life... Come and see....

We do not need to hide behind masks of social niceties, or laden tables, Jesus challenge to us is to open our hearts to him and to others, to respond to his invitation Come and see, and then in turn to extend that invitation.

We live in a world where suspicion everything is prevalent, even in the quiet township of the Navarino area... The Church by contrast is trying to create an open door, inviting the young, the old, the broken, the poor, the lifelong member and the newest seeker and recognizing them as valuable. Our invitation is simple; Come and see....

Come and see... you are welcome, come and see.... By issuing the invitation we create an open door, extend a welcome and provide the possibility of a new relationship, one where we may find ourselves changed by the God who meets us in unexpected people, and finds us in unexpected places. After all, if we ourselves are going to issue the invitation to someone – maybe we need to clarify for ourselves just who it is we are inviting them to “come and see.” So I offer the invitation to you this day. “Come and see”...

Dear Ascension Lutheran Church:
Please Let your congregation know of our thankfulness for their gift. May they have a Happy New Year knowing that they are helping to construct another Habitat for Humanity home right now. It is on Bent Arrow Road, three miles from Keshena, on a beautiful wooded lot donated by a lady living in Alaska. The build is coming along very well in spite of the weather. Volunteers have just been wearing many layers.

Dear Ascension Lutheran,
Thank you for your generous donation of $850.00. Thank you so much for your incredible effort and continued blessings to the children of Haiti through Haiti's Children, Inc.

Best Regards,
Gladys Mungo

Dear Ascension Lutheran,
Grace and Peace to you from our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

I am writing to thank you so very much for your recent gift to the Institute of Lutheran Theology of $350. We are so very appreciative of your prayers and financial support. Since ILT has chosen to keep the education it delivers affordable to students, 74% of all our programming cost come in the form of donations from individuals and congregations. Clearly your gift is crucial for our survival and growth. We profoundly value the partnership we have with you, so be sure to call or write me any time with issues or concerns

God Bless!
Dennis Bielfeldt, Ph.D., President
Institute of Lutheran Theology

Thank you, Thank you,
Thank you

A heartfelt thanks to you all for the cards, gifts and well wishes we received in the Christmas season! You are truly a blessing from God to us in our lives -
Pastor Jon and Kathy

Thanks to Stacey Homan for her ongoing donations of paper products for the Kitchen. It is much appreciated.

Thank You to Heather Goodacre and Lisa Wollenberg for providing the congregation with M&M gift bags on Christmas Eve. What a thoughtful gesture.

Last but not least, I would like to thank Toni and Darrel for getting and putting up the new blinds in my office. It is so nice to be able to block the sun when I want and keep the cold out. Thanks again

Church Chat

from the Church Lady

I find it hard to believe we are already several weeks into 2014. I have to make a conscientious effort to write the correct date on my checks. (I know some people may call that old age but I prefer to call it denial. It can't be 2014 already!) I have been retired from my last job for over a year and have almost five months into my current position. So much has happened in such a short time. This past month, I learned how to set up the 2014 budget in Church Windows and change the Chart of Accounts. More change is on the way since our current financial system in Church Windows is outdated and we need to upgrade to a new accounting system. This should make my job easier in the long run but there will be a learning curve. Like I say, we are never too old to learn something new.

My next big project is the report for the Annual meeting which will be completed by the time you read this. I hope very one gets their reports to me on time so I can compile them with a minimal amount of errors. I'd like to say it will be error free but given my past history I don't think that is possible (but I will do my best).

A thank you goes out to Dennis for his assistance and patience with me in getting the monthly and year-end financial reports put together accurately and setting up the salaries for this year so I can pay everyone. (Jean, I will get your salary right this year.) He knows the budget inside and out and is an asset to me and the church membership.

I don't think most of you are aware of the time our Church Council puts in every month in addition to their monthly meetings. Many of them voluntarily do odd jobs around the church that probably goes unnoticed by many of you.. Does anyone know who takes the garbage out to the road on pickup days or checks the septic system so we know when to have it pumped. Who checks on the heating and cooling system to make sure it is working correctly or who is there to fix things that break down. Odds are it is a Council or Committee member that performs these various duties to keep our Church maintained and running efficiently. I am thankful for their help because if these jobs were left up to me nothing would get done. I can barely remember to water the two plants in the Fellowship Hall on a monthly (oh I mean weekly) basis. ☺

In the coming months, the Council may be asking for your help in keeping our Church maintained. Please consider assisting however you can. We are like a family where everyone needs to be involved to keep our "household" running smoothly.

CHRISTIAN THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY

- ◆ Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited, until you try to sit in their pews.
- ◆ When you come to your wit's end, You'll find God lives there.
- ◆ People are funny, they want the front of the bus, middle of the road, and back of the church.
- ◆ The Will of God never takes you where the Grace of God will not protect you.

A Sunday school Teacher asked her little children, as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

Six-year old Angie and her four-year old brother Joel were sitting together in church. Joel giggled, sang and talked out loud. Finally, his sister had had enough. "You are not supposed to talk out loud in church." "Why? Who's going to stop me?" Joel asked. Angie pointed to the back of the church and said, "See those two men standing by the door? They're Hushers."

Valentine Themed Recipes

These recipes are found in the Taste of Home's 2000 Quick Cooking Recipe book which was provided to me by Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL)

Cupid's Kabobs

- 1-1/2 cups cold milk
- 1 package (3.4 ounces) instant vanilla pudding
- 1 cup (8 ounces) Cherry vanilla yogurt
- 1 carton (8 ounces) frozen whipped topping, thawed
- Assorted fruit- seedless grapes, apple chunks, strawberry halves and /or pineapples chunks

In a bowl, combine the milk and pudding mix; mix well. Let stand 2-3 minutes. Add yogurt, mix well. Fold in whipped topping. Refrigerate. Thread fruit onto bamboo skewers. Serve with dip. Yields 4 cups dip.

Heart's Desire Pizza

- 1 tube (17.3 ounces) large refrigerated biscuits
- 1 jar (14 ounces) pizza sauce
- 1-1/2 to 2 cups toppings- sliced ripe olives, sliced and quartered pepperoni, chopped fresh mushrooms, chopped green and /or sweet yellow pepper.
- 1-1/2 cups (6 ounces) shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1-11/2 cups (6 ounces) shredded cheddar cheese.

Cut eight 6 inch square pieces of aluminum foil, place on baking sheets. Lightly coat foil with nonstick cooking spray; set aside. On a lightly floured surface, roll each biscuit to a 5 inch square. Cut a 1 inch triangle from center top and place on the center bottom, forming a heart. Press edges to seal. Transfer to foil squares. Spoon pizza sauce over dough to within 1/4 inch of edges. Sprinkle with desired toppings and cheeses. Bake at 425 degrees for 10-15 minutes or until golden brown. Yields 8 pizzas

Conversation Cupcakes

|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 package (18-1/4 ounces) white cake mix | 4 Cups confectioners' sugar |
| 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened | 2 tablespoons milk |
| 1/2 cup shortening | 1 to 2 drops red food coloring |
| 1 teaspoon vanilla extract | 1 to 2 drops yellow food coloring |
| 1/8 teaspoon butter flavoring, optional | 1 to 2 drops blue food coloring |

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Place paper or foil liners in a heart-shaped or standard muffin tin. Fill cups half full of batter. (If using a standard tin, tuck a 1/2 foil ball or a marble between the liner and the cup to form a heart shape.) Bake according to package directions for cupcakes. Cool for 10 minutes; remove from pans to wire racks to cool completely. For frosting, cream butter and shortening in a small bowl. Add vanilla and butter flavoring if desired. Add sugar, 1 cup at a time, beating well after each addition. Beat in milk until light and fluffy. Divide frosting into fourths; place in four separate bowls. Add one food coloring to bowls and mix well leaving one bowl white. Frost cupcakes and decorate with Valentine phrases. Yields 28 cupcakes
