Message from the Pastor

Reformation Day is the anniversary of the day Martin Luther posted his ninety-five Theses on the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. October 31, 1517 was the date Luther posted the Theses and the church celebrates Reformation Day every year. The Lutheran church identifies with the Reformation as it was the beginning of breaking away from the Roman Catholic Church. Luther's intent was not to leave the Roman Catholic Church, but to reform its' practices and beliefs. An example of reform would be indulgences. In Luther's time, it required that parishioners purchase indulgences so a loved one's time in purgatory would be shortened.

Luther's reform was a direct revelation of God's grace and all-sufficient merit of Christ. When Martin Luther read Romans 1:16-17, he realized no matter what works he did would not bring Eternal Life. Luther tried everything to appease a wrathful God. He would flog himself, pray on a stone floor and starve himself. How liberating it was for Luther to read this scripture; "For I am not afraid of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jews first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, 'The one who are righteous will live by faith.'"

Mark and I were in Germany in 2017 which happened to be the 500th anniversary of Luther's posting of the ninety-five Theses. We spent a day in Wittenberg and it happened to be that a worship service at Castle Church would be at 7:00 pm. in English. Castle Church was part of the tour of Luther sites in Wittenberg. The tour should have finished so that the service could begin. There was quite a good size group of people standing under the pulpit. This group actually was part of the service. These people are descendants of Martin Luther and they sang "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" in German. The rest of the service was in English. We were fortunate to stumble across this one-time event in the celebration of the anniversary. Martin Luther is buried in front of the Pulpit. He preached there often.

What became known as the Reformation brought a sense of peace to Luthers' soul. Matthew 11:28; "Come to me, all you that are weary and carrying heavy burdens and I will give you rest."

We cannot do anything to appease God. God has reconciled us to himself by the blood of Jesus on the cross. God only wants our hearts. We do good works but only to glorify God the Father in heaven. We are saved by Christ alone. Ephesians 2:8a; "by grace you have been saved through faith."

Blessings, Pastors Marcia and Mark

And Mabel Played the Organ ~ by Marjorie Wilbur

[This article was originally published in the March 1982 Visitor]

As we think of thirty years or more
That Mabel has been playing
As we have joined together
In worshipping and praying
Our thoughts go back those many years
And all that's come to be
Yes, thirty years of history
Has gone by you and me
Since Mabel's been at the organ - -

Wars in Korea and Vietnam
Were close to all of us
As our boys were fighting
To help settle all the fuss
I'm sure that many of these boys
Gave thoughts to God and home
Of services in the old church
And pastors they had known
And Mabel at the organ - -

We've had assassinations
In our country and across
We've had good times and bad times
We have suffered from the loss
We've shuttled to the moon and back
We hardly could believe
The exploration into space
Not easy to conceive
And as those things have happened
There was always this to know
That come next Sunday morning
To services we'd go
And Mabel would be at the organ - -

We think of all the loved ones
Who have left us o'er these years
And as the memories linger
We wipe away the tears
But our friends were there to help us
As we walked the long sad mile

And they were there to cheer us
As we picked up with a smile
And through nearly every funeral
That was conducted here
Mabel was at the organ - -

We think of happy times we've had
Receptions, dinners, showers
One wedding when the current went off
And stopped the organ's power
But Mabel wasn't daunted
As the thunder rolled about
She was playing the piano
As the couple marched back out
Another wedding comes to mind
At Lunds, it did take place
Mabel played the wedding march
The bride and groom kept pace
But no pastor came to marry them
It seems, he had hit a deer
So, the bride and groom went out to wait
For the pastor to appear
As as everybody wondered
What was going on out there
Mabel kept playing the organ - -

We've gone through several pastors
In these thirty years or so
And Mabel's had her trials
With some of them, we know
We've changed our hymn books a few times
Which isn't always easy
But she's kept right on playing
Though the singing's a bit queasy
And the organ's always ready
On that we can depend
When the preacher's sick of preaching
And says a quick "Amen"
Cause Mabel's at the organ - -

And Mabel Played the Organ continued ~ Community Events

Not just Sunday services
But rehearsals by the score
For choirs, weddings, funerals
Sunday School and so much more
Though she flits around the country
As a District officer
From here to California, Texas or St Paul
We know that Sunday morning
When the bell begins to toll
That Mabel will be at the organ - -

Yes, thirty years and more have passed
How quickly they did go
Since Mabel started playing
On that day, so long ago
We all extend our thanks today
For all those many times
The happy and sad ones
We have heard the music chime
As Mabel played the organ - -
